

The CIHR Institute of Human Development, Child and Youth Health (IHDCYH)'s Indigenous Path

Indigenous
Path Website

IHDCYH is committed to supporting an Indigenous Path in all our activities. We do this through four key actions:

Prioritize funding for Indigenous-led research

Ensure Indigenous engagement in IHDCYH governance

Build and sustain purposeful partnerships with Indigenous researchers, communities and organizations

Increase capacity in our community for Indigenous-led research

Our goal is to ensure that Institute activities reflect respectful engagement and opportunities for Indigenous health research.
